

Cool hostels in São Paulo

São Paulo is dynamic, cool and international. Brazil and the world come to the city in search of entertainment and news. To house them, it is essential that places there are cheap and provide a innovative and cool environment exist, perfect for the tourist to feel at home and, at the same time, get to know new people and make friends with people from around the world. Here is a list of eight modern and cool hostels in São Paulo, for the enjoyment of every backpacker:

Did's Hostels

At a 5 minutes distance from the Paulista Avenue, Did's Hostel worries not only about making the environment a second house for its guests, but also making it in a modern fashion, with a cool decor. The deck has the typical bar tables from São Paulo, the reception mixes the modern prints in their chairs with a vintage wall clock. Creativity is absolute in the choice of names for the rooms: Cheech and Chong, for two people; Muppets and Goonies, for eight; and Little Rascals for twelve people. Besides all that, the website is very informative and has a chat with attentive service in English, Spanish and Portuguese.

LimeTime Hostel

LimeTime Hostel is proud to be the most sociable hostel of São Paulo. Focused on providing guests with a pleasant and unforgettable trip beginning the stay, the LimeTime offers happy hours every night, in which one caipirinha is offered for free to guests and the Internet is turned off, valuing human interaction and new friendships. There is also the CaipiTuesdays: on Tuesdays, two hours of free caipirinhas are offered to cheer up everyone.

Hostel Jardim São Paulo
